

CANINE ASSISTANCE

Heather Rousseau/Aspen Daily News

Channing Seideman, 17, of Aspen trains her canine assistant dog, Georgie, near the Aspen Recreation Center on Tuesday. Georgie will be able to help Seideman with many tribulations she has with her epilepsy, including retrieving her medicine when necessary. Seideman said having Georgie helps her to be more independent.